

International Women's Day

8th March

Introduction

 +  ~~=~~
Girls/women and boys/men are not always treated the same

Sometimes they were seen as being less important.

In the Past

In the past, women were not always allowed to:

Choose whether to get married or not

Have a job

Vote

Be paid fairly

Choose to have children or not

Go to school

What Has Changed?

During the Victorian era, the Suffragettes campaigned for women to have the right to vote.

1928

By 1928, in the United Kingdom, all women

over

21

were allowed to vote.

What Has Changed?

Women vote in elections

Women work in every kind of job.

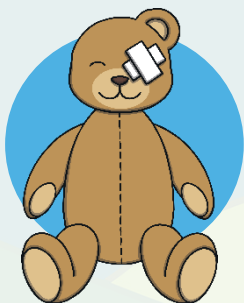

Women have the right to be educated

Women have the right to make their own decision about their family.

What Can We Do Now?

How can we make the world a fairer place?

Does it matter if toys say 'for boys' or 'for girls'?

Does it matter if girls like football or boys like unicorns?

Is it OK for boys to cry when they are sad?

Is it OK for girls to carry chairs or books around school?

Finally...

 All of  us  can  work together  to create  a world  where  everyone  is equal.

 Today  &  8th  March,  we  celebrate  women's  achievements  and  we challenge  unfairness  and  inequality.
